Camtu is an experienced international public speaker, e-Business consultant and lecturer in Management and Electronic Business at the University of Wollongong.

International Speaker and Trainer

Highly respected in the educational and private sector, Camtu's business insight, in-depth knowledge of commerce, project management, new technology, and motivation to remain at the cutting edge of developments in e-Business has placed her in demand as a public speaker.

Local and international conferences which have benefited from her wide ranging expertise include:

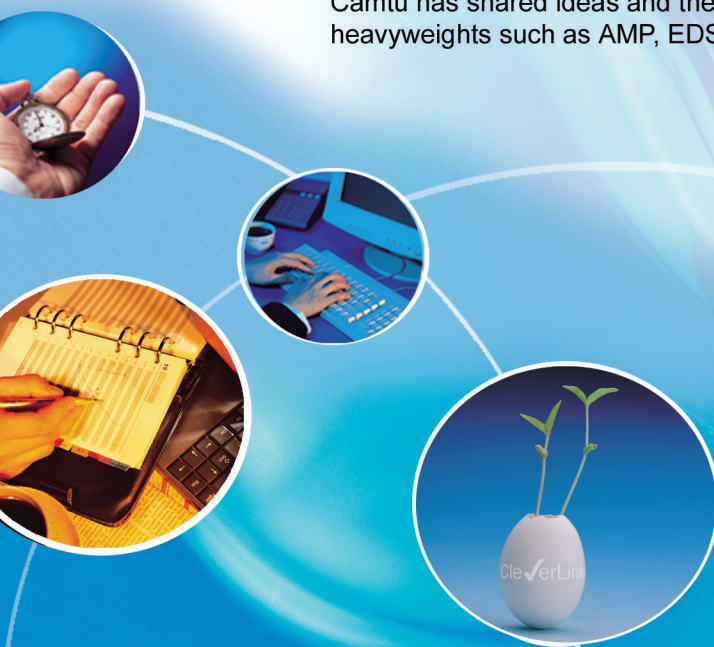

- ✓ Golden Key International Honour Society Asia Pacific Conference 2003
- ✓ AHAUCHI Conference Oct 2002
- ✓ CPA Professional Development Training 2002
- ✓ International Communications for Management Group 2000

Camtu has shared ideas and the stage with business professionals from global heavyweights such as AMP, EDS, KPMG, Microsoft, Silicon Graphics International.

Commitment to Others

Keen to nurture the progression of others and assist local business, Camtu is designing and co-ordinating a student Leadership and Business Development program at Wollongong University. The first of its kind at an Australian University, the program offers a symbiotic relationship between students and local companies; students' profit from 'real world' experience and companies reap the rewards of 'newness' and fresh ideas.

Camtu also coaches members of the Golden Key Honour Society in the Asia Pacific region, this includes 31 Universities across Australia, NZ and Malaysia. Golden Key is an international organisation made up of the top fifteen percent of students from 335 Universities across the world.
